

INSPIRATIONAL FUTURES 22nd November 2021

As they make choices and plans for the future, young people need support from the people who know them best; their families. There are many ways that parents can offer support with choices and this bi-weekly update will provide you with current information to help you.

A Parent's Guide to University: Student Finance and Support

University is a complicated world for parents as well as students. That is why we have taken the two most important pillars for parents regarding their child and university and put them into the spotlight. This comprehensive guide will equip parents with all there is to know about Student Finance and Student Support Services. Accessing this information is one of the best ways to support your student from getting a place at university, to getting a degree.

The MyTutor Guide to University

Whether you are dead set on university or tossing up whether it is the right path for you or not, this ebook can help you work out your next steps. Find expert information on picking courses and universities, advice from current students and graduates, as well detailed guides on the UCAS timeline and how to make a cracking application.

The World of Work: How to Help your Teen Plan their Future

As a parent, you want to help your teen find the best career path for them. But when the world of work looks so (very) different to how it did when you were starting out, it can be hard to give them the best advice. In this ebook, you can find tips and activities from experienced careers advisors, educators, and professionals on how to help your teen work out a plan that works for them.

To access any or all of the above resources, please follow this link - <https://festival.springpod.com/resources>

For more details, contact: kathryn.loughnan@avonbourneacademy.org.uk