

Question: What will happen if students miss their exams due to self-isolating?

Answer: We have an exam catch up period of time built into our plan to allow for this. Students will complete the missing assessments on their return to school.

Question: Will the revision sessions cover content from lockdown?

Answer: The revision session for the rank order assessments will focus on content/topics covered in this set of rank order assessments.

Question: Are the ranks private?

Answer: Students will be aware of their position on the rank. We will not share information about individuals with other students. We cannot however stop students from sharing their position on the rank order with other students.

Question: Is there a weighting?

Answer: Maths and English are triple weighted and science double weighted.
